

Monday 18th January

L.O: To box up a characterisation text.

Smudge

Which 'Voice' or character are you going to narrate?

Charles

Mother

Dad

Choose one!

Charles

1

2

3

4

5

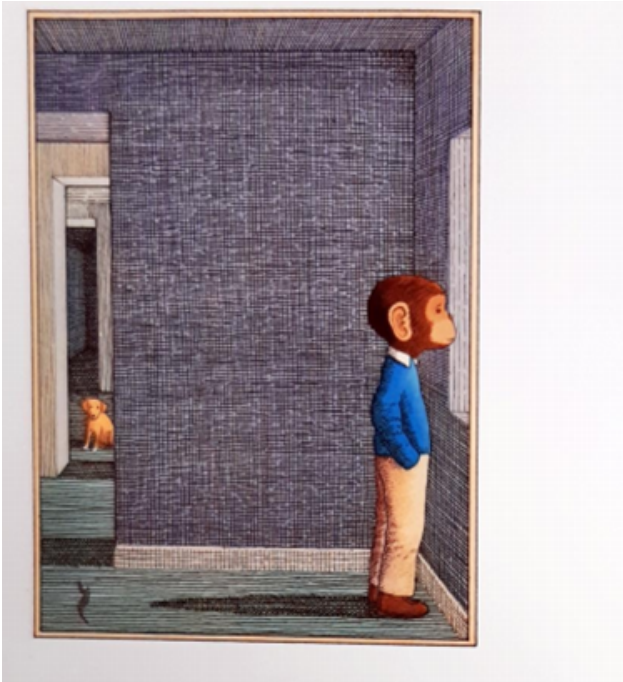

6

LO: To box up a characterization plan

At home Introduce Charlie Charlie's inner thought Mother dialogue	At Charles' home (Charles) Alone – hands in pocket – looking out window (Thought) Life is so boring (Dialogue/ mum) "Coat Charles!" barked
Walking to park Charlie, Mother and Victoria Physical appearance and movement of both	Walking to the park Charles, Mother, Victoria (Mother) back straight – upright – coat buttoned up - marching (Charles) barely visible – trailed alongside
At the park Letting dog off lead Reaction of Mother (appearance and dialogue) Charlie physical appearance and inner thoughts	At the park
Sitting on bench Mother dialogue Charlie and Mother Physical appearance and mannerism Dialogue between Smudge and Charlie Smudge action	Sitting on bench
Go to play Charlie reaction Charlie dialogue	Go to play

*Let's think about the features of characterisation.
What do we need to include?*

Characterization toolbox

Character's name
Contrasting characters
Relevant dialogue with accurate punctuation (limited use of adverbials)
A range of reporting verbs (chuckled, bellowed, stuttered)
Actions of the character
Inner thoughts of the character
Appearance of the character
Background information about the character

LO: To box up a characterisation plan

At home Introduce Charlie Charlie's inner thought Mother dialogue	At Charles' home (Charles) Alone – hands in pocket – looking out window (Thought) Life is so boring (Dialogue/ mum) "Coat Charles!" barked
Walking to park Charlie, Mother and Victoria Physical appearance and movement of both	Walking to the park Charles. Mother, Victoria (Mother) back straight – upright – coat buttoned up - marching (Charles) barely visible – trailed alongside
At the park	At the park

Smudge

Charles

Over to you!

Which 'Voice' are you going to write a characterisation piece for?

Mother

Dad

Choose one!

