

I work on important jobs for the Shang government. I make a lot of money and I'm part of the ruling class.	I am respected for the food I grow, but like most people in the Shang society, I work very hard on my farm. Most of my work is done by hand, so it is a tough life.	I am a respected member of society. People honour me for my fighting skills, but my job is dangerous, as there are many battles.
I am skilled with my hands and can make beautiful and useful things out of clay, bronze or jade. People pay me for the things I make.	I am trusted by the king to advise him about important decisions. I can communicate with the gods and can even predict the future using oracle bones.	I am forced to work for my masters, as I have been captured in battle. As a prisoner, I have to do the worst jobs, like break rocks at the quarry for building walls.
