WORKING IN PARTNERSHIP WITH PARENTS

Emmaville Strikes a Winner at the Gateshead School Sports Partnership Primary Panathlon

Congratulations to our amazing bowlers (Jack, Jake, Molly, Wilf, Pen and Taylor) who represented Emmaville at the Primary Panathlon event at Riverside Bowling, Sunderland on Tuesday 12th November. The children worked incredibly well as a team during the competition and used their communication skills to help one another to gain some incredible scores - Taylor and Pen even made it into the '100 Club' after reaching a score over 100 during the event!

Mrs McKenna and I were so proud of them.

Lydia from Year 5 last weekend competed at a very competitive MDC dance competition. Lydia continues to improve and she danced with such maturity again for her age dancing with girls aged 17 years old and came away with 2nd in her Lyrical solo, 1st in Senior Classical Troupe, 1st in Intermediate Classical Troupe and 2nd in the Intermediate Non- Classical Troupe with her friends at Northern Stars Dance Academy.

This will be the last competition before Lydia and her friends go to Blackpool in January for That's Showbitz National Finals so the hard work continues.
