

Contractions and question tags - answers

1. It was so quiet, you could have heard a pin drop. could've
2. I did not really believe my wish would come true. didn't
3. It was late, and there were not any people left. weren't
4. I had got off the bus and was heading to the market place; I could not bear to go back to my empty flat yet. hadn't couldn't
5. It is always the same with him – he can not help himself, but wish for money. It's can't
6. It should've been simple, but they'd thrown the coins at the same time. should have they had
7. There was only one thing left for it – I'd have to use the emergency box of wishes. I would
8. I don't know why I bothered going to the fountain, as I'd never had any luck before. do not I had
9. I wasn't really paying attention, but I couldn't work out how on Earth I'd got back to the market square.
was not could not I had
10. It'd been a close shave, but they'd managed to get together, and with any luck, they'll be happy.
It had they had they will
11. Of course, he would want money, wouldn't he?
12. Normally, I don't have any luck, do I?
13. So many people come to the café and don't leave a tip, do they?
14. I can dream, can't I?
15. I was bored of the same old thing, wasn't I?

Possible examples:

16. I shouldn't really take my brother's bike without permission, should I?
17. You haven't seen my sunglasses, have you?
18. You will remember to feed the dogs, won't you?
19. Everyone is supposed to be keeping their distance, aren't they?
20. He didn't say that to her face, did he?