

LO: To explore organisation and rhyming in a poem

The last few lessons we explored features of a poem and applied them to a descriptive write.

Today we will explore the poem 'I Wandered Lonely as a Cloud' for further features to then apply to writing our own poem.

The features are

- organisation
- rhyming

I Wandered Lonely as a Cloud by William Wordsworth

I wandered lonely as a cloud
That floats on high o'er vales and hills,
When all at once I saw a crowd,
A host, of golden daffodils;
Beside the lake, beneath the trees,
Fluttering and dancing in the breeze.

Continuous as the stars that shine
And twinkle on the Milky Way,
They stretched in never-ending line
Along the margin of a bay:
Ten thousand saw I at a glance,
Tossing their heads in sprightly dance.

The waves beside them danced; but they
Out-did the sparkling waves in glee:
A poet could not but be gay,
In such a jocund company:
I gazed – and gazed – but little thought
What wealth the show to me had brought:

For oft, when on my couch I lie
In vacant or in pensive mood,
They flash upon that inward eye
Which is the bliss of solitude;
And then my heart with pleasure fills,
And dances with the daffodils.

How is the poem organised?

Which one should I choose?

Which is better in the rain?

Which is better for a snooze?

Oh! Stop this thought! Stop this talk!

I know. Much better that I walk!

Life is full of joy and pain.

Love and hate,

Sun and rain.

Which one is my fate?

Life is full, full of choice.

Make your own. Find your voice.
