Dear Miss Armstrong,

I have been a pupil at Emmaville Primary for the last seven years, and I feel it is now my duty to relate to you the feelings of your students towards wearing a school uniform. It has long been felt by me, and my peers, that wearing a school uniform is an outdated and impractical notion, which we no longer feel is necessary. By writing this letter, I hope to convince you that this is the case, and begin negotiations on changing this rule.

My reasons for not wearing uniform are as follows:

To begin with, a recent survey conducted by the school council identified that an overwhelming majority of 79% of pupils would prefer to wear their own clothes to school. As a Head Teacher, it is your duty to listen to and consider any opinions of your students and to negotiate with them. As the school council are an elected body of students from all the classes in the school, it is important that you take heed of any information they discover about the wants and needs of the pupils.

Secondly, my peers and I feel more comfortable and at ease in our own clothes; this is important as the more comfortable we feel, the better we are able to concentrate on the work we are doing. If
