WORKING IN PARTNERSHIP WITH PARENTS

We would like to wish you all a fantastic half-term holiday and look forward to welcoming the children back to school on Monday 28th February.

All children are invited to come to school dressed as their favourite book character on Thursday 3rd March.

What a brilliant day we had in school last Friday! The children all came to school looking amazing as they "dressed to express" - we had everything from bright colours and jazzy patterns to basketballers and princesses all enjoying their wellbeing day together.

Whilst the children had lots of fun completing art activities, and practising mindfulness and yoga, a very important message about mental health was being explored. The wellbeing of the children, their families and the staff is something which is very important to us at Emmaville and we feel it is important to explore strategies which help to support this.

I hope the children brought home their hot air balloons, to remember they can reach for the sky, and told you about some of the things they had done on Friday. Thanks to your generosity we managed to raise £726.00 to support this very worthwhile cause.

Miss McPherson

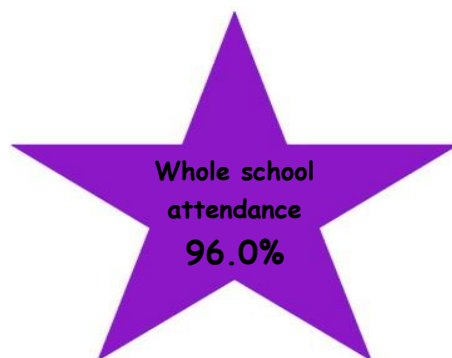

"If I am thinking correctly," said Pooh, "a new baby is probably undoubtedly the grandest gift that could ever be."
"A grand gift indeed."

Congratulations to Josie (Newcastle) on the birth of her baby brother Jamie.
