

Sentence starters

Proudly, he walked onto stage...

Angrily, he bashed the keys of the piano...

Playing the piano was his first love...

Sweeping the floor was torture but...

What type of word do the first two sentences start with?

How about the third and fourth?

Sentence starters

Proudly, he walked onto stage...

Angrily, he bashed the keys of the piano...

Playing the piano was his first love...

Sweeping the floor was torture but...

Two ways of starting a sentence are adverbs and verbs.

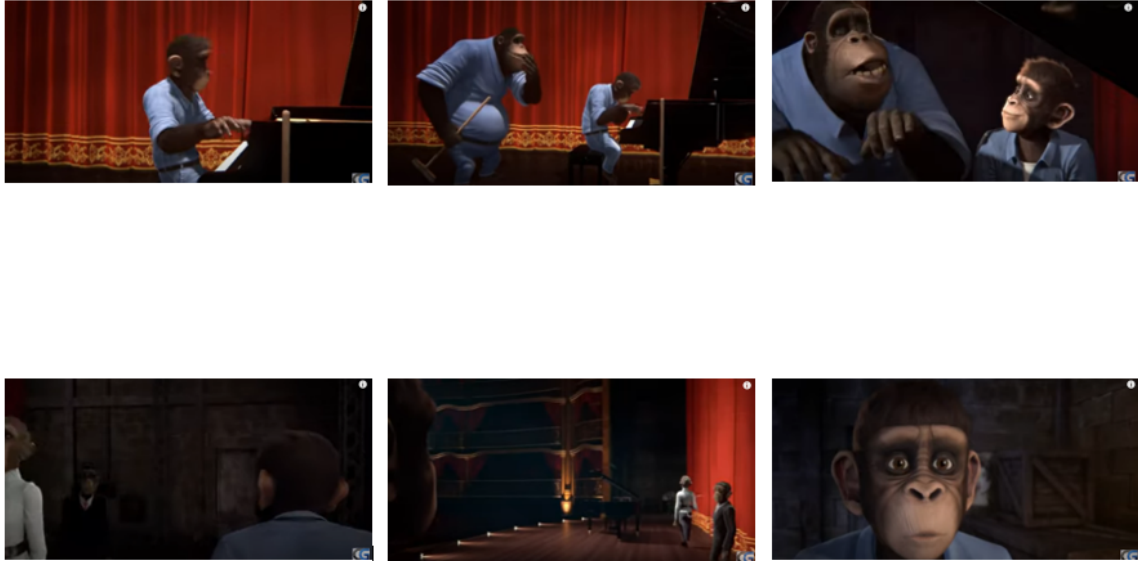

Think of two sentences related to the video starting with

- an adverb

- a verb

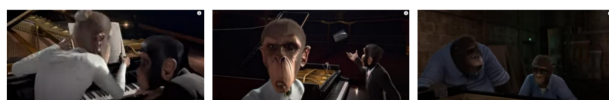

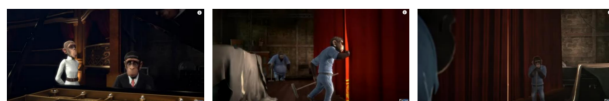

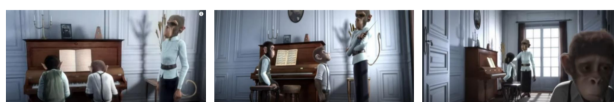

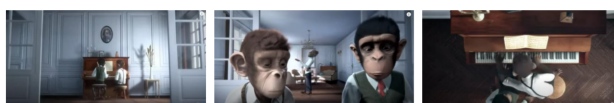

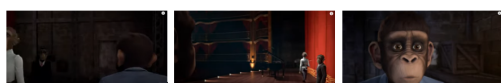

LO: To develop dialogue for a scene

- Choose one of the three scenes
- Develop dialogue
- Role play the scene with dialogue and actions

1. What might the characters say to each other in this scene?

In groups of 4, role play the scene with your own dialogue.

In groups of 4, role play the second scene and then the third scene using your own dialogue.

LO: To develop dialogue for a scene

- Choose one of the three scenes
- Develop dialogue
- Role play the scene with dialogue and actions

