

Welcome aboard the open top Tour of London City bus ride!

Hold on tight and make sure you have collected a map for the journey.

Nov 18-09:10

If we look out on ur bus ride, what might we see?

Has anyone ever been to London before?

What did you see?

What is it like?

How is it similar/different to Newcastle?

Nov 18-09:13

London is the capital city of England. Let's use our atlas to try and find it.

Where do we look in an atlas to help us find a place?

How does an atlas show which city is the capital city?

Nov 18-09:16

London is the largest city in England.

It is a very busy and built up city with lots of important buildings.

Around 8 million people live in London!

Nov 18-10:34

There are some very famous landmarks in London.

Hold on tight, let's set off around the city of London!

Nov 18-09:49

The Shard- it is London's tallest building and is 310 meters tall.

Big Ben- The great bell in the tower at the north end of the palace of Westminster.

Nov 18-10:37

The Houses of Parliament inside Westminster Palace. This is where very important meetings take place about England.

Nov 18-10:37

Buckingham Palace- who do you think lives here?

Nov 18-10:37

What do you expect Buckingham Palace to be like on the inside? Let's take a look...
