

We will be exploring this poem next week and using it to write our own poems.

It includes rhyme and figurative language.

What is rhyme?

What is figurative language?

Rhyme - (of a word, syllable or line) have or end with a sound that corresponds to another.

Figurative language - examples include similies, metaphors and personification

I Wandered Lonely as a Cloud

by William Wordsworth, 1807

I wandered lonely as a cloud
That floats on high o'er vales and hills,
When all at once I saw a crowd,
A host, of golden daffodils;
Beside the lake, beneath the trees,
Fluttering and dancing in the breeze.

The waves beside them danced; but they
Out-did the sparkling waves in glee:
A poet could not but be gay,
In such a jocund company:
I gazed – and gazed – but little thought
What wealth the show to me had brought:

Continuous as the stars that shine
And twinkle on the Milky Way,
They stretched in never-ending line
Along the margin of a bay:
Ten thousand saw I at a glance,
Tossing their heads in sprightly dance.

For oft, when on my couch I lie
In vacant or in pensive mood,
They flash upon that inward eye
Which is the bliss of solitude;
And then my heart with pleasure fills,
And dances with the daffodils.

LO: To write a narrative including direct speech

As a cold write, you are going to write a poem based on Monkey symphony.
