

LO: To apply skills in a short burst write

This term, your writing has very much improved. Well done on all you hard work.

You have learnt new skills or revised prior learning and we are now starting to see these used independently in your own work.

Now is the opportunity to show what you can do with freedom.

We have explored

- Descriptions
- Suspense
- Poetry
- Information texts

We have learnt about

- Adverbials (time, place and manner)
- Fronted adverbials with punctuation
- A wide range of conjunctions to link sentences (addition, causal, contrast and compare)
- Parenthesis with punctuation
- Topic sentences
- Paragraphs
- Well-chosen vocabulary
- Show not tell

Today you have the freedom to write what you want and how you want to, based on the image.

But, it is important to apply the skills you have learnt when it is appropriate. Do not just use them for the sake of using them. Writing is very much about choices.

You can choose between

- The Vanishing, and
- The Clock Tower

The Vanishings
