

Monday	English WOTW - fire-breathing, ferocious, aggressive, majestic, colossal Can you look these words up and write their definitions?	Maths Please follow the PowerPoint and answer the questions as you go.	Accelerated Reader (AR) 20 mins	Doodle Maths 20 mins	Geography Read through the PowerPoint and complete the chart showing the advantages and disadvantages of international travel.
Tuesday	English Follow this link: https://www.origamiway.com/easy-origami-bird.shtml See if you can make this origami bird by following the instructions.	Maths Please follow the PowerPoint and answer the questions as you go.	AR 20 mins reading	Doodle Maths 20 mins	PE Please complete a physical activity of your choice.
Wednesday	English Start a story map for the 'How to trap a dragon' text, and add actions.	Maths Please follow the PowerPoint and answer the questions as you go.	AR 20 mins reading	Doodle Maths 20 mins	Science This week we are learning about how sounds changes over distance. Can you create a string phone using cups and string and use it with a grown up to test how sound travels through the phone?
Thursday	English Complete a story map for the 'How to trap a dragon' text, and add actions. Can you perform this and send it on SeeSaw?	Maths Please follow the PowerPoint and answer the questions as you go.	AR 20 mins reading	Doodle Maths 20 mins	Art Can you create a Roman shield using some form of digital art. Research Roman shields using the PowerPoint and the internet and design your own using https://bomomo.com/ .
Friday	English Follow the PowerPoint and look for the key features in the 'How to trap a dragon' text.	Maths Please follow the PowerPoint and answer the questions as you go.	AR 20 mins reading	Doodle Maths 20 mins	PSHE Use a recent photo of yourself and write words and phrases around it that explain how special you are.