

Thursday 2nd November.

LO - I understand that we can judge people by appearance.

I understand what influences me to make assumptions based on how people look.

Using a photograph to get information about someone.

Over the next four slides you will see pictures of different people. TYP about the questions that appear next to the picture.

We will discuss each picture as a class.

Answer the following questions about this photo:

- 1) How old am I?
- 2) What is my favourite food?
- 3) What is my hobby?

Reflection question.

If people are different to what we think or different to what we are used to, is that okay or can it be hard to accept?

TTYP and then as a class.

What can you see in this picture?

What can you see in this picture?

- Some people see an old woman, others a young woman...
- Can anyone explain to others what you they can see?

What influences you when you meet someone new?

I think I am mostly influenced by ...

Is that influence always right?

We need to be careful not to judge a book by its cover. What do we mean by this?

Judging people and things:

We must remember to be careful not to judge by appearance only.

Just because a book looks ragged doesn't mean the story isn't good.

Just because an animal is big it doesn't mean it is vicious.

Just because someone dresses a certain way, doesn't mean they are violent, unkind, angry.

Celebrating Differences

- We are all different and we need to celebrate this.
- Our differences make the world a better place and more interesting too.
- We are all allowed to think differently and believe in different things.
