Over the next two weeks we are going to learning about, planning and finally writing our own wishing tales.

Can you guess what might happen in a wishing tale?

| Wishing Tale: | Generic Structure: |
|----------------------|--|
| Opening | MC wants something badly |
| Build up | MC tries to get it |
| Problem | MC is prevented by some sort of difficulty |
| Resolution | MC overcomes the difficulty |
| Ending | MC gets what they want. (Was it worth it?) |

Cold Write

Have a go at writing a wishing tale! This is an independent activity. I'm looking to see what I need to teach you and what you can already do. It's your chance to show off!

Would you paint things for others?

Let's go and paint with some magic

Now, listen carefully to the wishing tale called "The Magic Paintbrush".

Thursday 4th November

L.O. To use drama to help us understand
"The Magic Paintbrush".

Look at the model text 'The Magic Paintbrush' and can you draw a story map to help you remember it?

Hot seating

Let's interview Chang - can you think of a good question to ask him?

Let's interview the Emperor - can you think of an interesting question?

Freeze Frames!

"Chang painted the shape of a butterfly and to his amazement it came to life and flew away."

"Where's my field of gold?" shouted the emperor, angrily

"Paint stronger wind," roared the emperor.

"So Chang drew a storm. Suddenly, the waves grew rougher and rougher until the boat capsized and the emperor disappeared."

Gossip

Imagine you are gossiping to a friend about the events in the story. You might want to pretend you are gossiping down the phone or somewhere secretive!
