

LO: To understand that cultural differences can sometimes cause conflict

Discuss

- Why do think groups may have differences when looking at the same child?
- All the children live in the UK. Why might there be difference in their cultures?
- What elements of a child's culture might cause conflict? What might this conflict look like?
- Write three aspects of being British most help you feel like you belong to this culture?