Tell your partner - what is a verb?

Watch until 2:52...

What just happened? Do you think this is real life?

What kind of things did they see in the jungle?

Today, we are going to work as a class to do a poem called a kenning.

Animal-hider,
Heat-trapper,
Rain-catcher ,
Shade-giver,
Plant-grower,
Land-coverer,
Habitat-builder,
Species-breeder,
Secret-keeper,
Medicine-maker,
Life giver,
Beauty-preserver.

What do you think this kenning is about?

A kenning poem

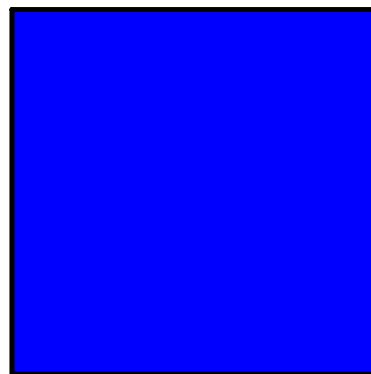

- A kenning poem is a special type of poem that describes an object or a creature without ever using its name.
- Only 2 words per line!
- 2 word phrase used instead of a noun

e.g. plane rider instead of pilot

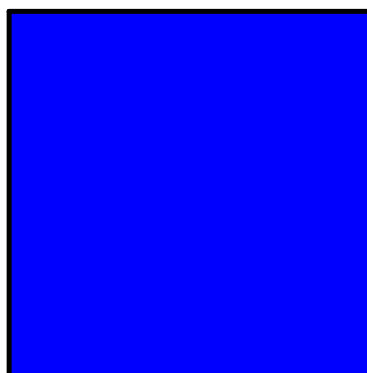

ball chaser instead of footballer

Kennings always follow the same pattern.

Paw licker
Day dreamer
Milk drinker
Ball chaser
Dog hater
Mouse chaser
Stroke lover

Great jumper
Water drinker
Straw eater
Strong walker
Race runner

Ball chaser
Crowd pleaser
Fast runner
Sneaky diver
Corner taker
Goal scorer
Mate hugger

We are going to work in two groups to think of some ideas as for our poems.

What does Grandpa do?
What does Grandpa like?
What is Grandpa like?

Now using your ideas, work in pairs to write a kenning about Grandpa. YOU BOTH NEED TO WRITE THE POEM IN YOUR BOOKS!!!
