

Friday 14th January.

LO - I can plan an action story using a box-it-up.

| Sections/ paragraphs | Key generic points | Adventures at Cambury Park | Innovation key points |
|-------------------------|--|--|-----------------------|
| Opening | Speech sentence MC having fun with friend Find a mystery object Rhetorical question Treasure inside | "Come on," shouted Sal as she ran towards the river. Laughing loudly, Jazzy followed. "Hey, look at that!" exclaimed Jazzy. It was a strange looking package, covered in yellow plastic. What was inside? To their amazement, gold coins spilled out. | |
| Build up | Opener, Villain and sidekick arrive Describe how they are evil MC and friend run away | At that moment, a scruffy man appeared. A terrier appeared and barked at the girls. The man's eyes were dark and cruel. Both girls ran back across the park, past the boatshed and towards the old warehouses. | |
| Dilemma | Speech sentence MC and friend hide Hear a noise Feeling scared Short punchy sentence Rhetorical question Cliff hanger ending | "Quick! Let's hide here," shouted They crouched down behind a large engine and waited. At that moment, they heard a scratching, scraping noise. Something was coming towards them. They froze, hearts pounding. Who or what was it? Peering round, Jazzy saw a shadow lurking.... | |
| Resolution | Hear something close but it leaves MC and friend leave quickly They see the villain and side kick leaving | They heard the dog whining quite close to them but a moment later it turned and ran outside. As soon as it had gone, the girls dashed to the door. In the distance, they could see the man and his dog running in the opposite direction. | |
| Ending | MC and friend back home Parent didn't believe but they had treasures They return to the police Receive a reward from the original owner | Ten minutes later, the girls were back home. Mrs Jenkins didn't believe them... But she soon did when Sal showed her the bag of golden coins. When the police arrived, the girls handed over the treasure. Mr Carter, who owned the shop, visited them at school and gave both girls a reward. | |