LO: To write dialogue as direct speech with accurate punctuation

1. Add the punctuation to each item of dialogue

Example 1 check

Sam said "You'll never guess what I've just seen"

Louise asked "What's that"

Replied Sam "Our teacher has a broomstick and a black pointy hat in the back of her car. I think she's a witch"

Example 2 check

"You'll never guess what I've just seen" said Sam
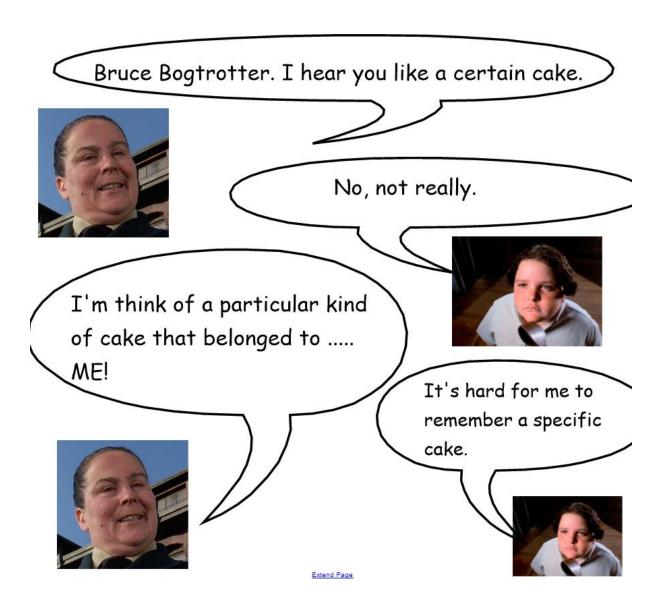

"What's that" asked Louise

"Our teacher has a broomstick and a black pointy hat in the back of her car. I think she's a witch" replied Sam

Example 3 check

"You'll never guess what I've just seen" said Sam "Never"

"No guesses mate" Louise replied "Just tell me"

"Okay" he grumbled "Our teacher has a broomstick and a black pointy hat in the back of her car. I think she's a witch"

Bruce Bogtrotter. I hear you like a certain cake.

No, not really.

I'm think of a particular kind of cake that belonged to ..... ME!

It's hard for me to remember a specific cake.
