

Click the image to watch the trailer

LO: To write an adventure story (cold write)

Larry is a security guard at The National History Museum.

Who or what came alive?

What fun or problems might he have?

Write an adventure story about this Larry's first night at the museum.

Your story should include

- descriptions
- use of senses
- show not tell (feelings)
- dialogue with accurate punctuation
- adverbials of time and place to move the story on
- paragraphing

'Goodnight,' said Larry as he closed the door to the last customer. 'Finally, a bit of peace,' he thought to himself. He hoped his first night as the security guard of the museum would be a quiet affair.