

Spring 1 theme: Passover

Spring 1 key question: How important is it for Jewish people to do what God asks them to do?

Dec 29-15:39

Jewish people celebrate the festival of Passover.

Dec 29-15:41

Jewish people celebrate Passover by eating a special meal known as the Seder meal to remind them of their special relationship with God.

Dec 29-15:44

But why do Jewish people celebrate Passover? It all started in a country called Egypt...

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/clips/zmqg6sbk>

Dec 29-15:51

Who was it that told Moses to go to Pharaoh?

Who do you think caused the ten plagues to occur in Egypt? Why?

Dec 29-15:58

It was the tenth plague that finally made Pharaoh let the Jewish people go. The eldest son in every Egyptian family died, including Pharaoh's.

The Jewish people were told to mark their doorposts with lamb's blood so that they would be safe. God could "pass over" their houses to spare them.

Dec 29-16:06

Jewish people celebrate Passover to remember what God did for them.
They did as he asked, and he helped them.

Dec 29-16:09

Using these pictures, can you retell the story of the Exodus of Egypt.

Dec 29-16:12