WEEKLY NEWS BULLETIN

WORKING IN PARTNERSHIP WITH PARENTS

What a wonderful couple of days we all had at Broomley Grange. The weather was fabulous, as the children tried new activities and overcame fears and apprehension to complete challenges they never knew they were capable of. The grounds were constantly filled with laughter and cheers of encouragement. The children were impeccably behaved and enjoyed every second of the visit as these pictures show. Well done to you all.

Miss Brewster, Miss Kenyon, Mr Elliott and Mrs Dent.

SCHOOL GAMES

What an extremely proud teacher I am this week! Tuesday saw our first ever 'School Games Day'. This was organised by Emmaville's 'Sports Crew'. The 'Sports Crew' is made up of our year 6 sports leaders, along with our house team captains and vice captains. Children planned the whole event which included a carousel of 8 activities. They worked together to plan and organise their activities, along with the equipment that they would need.

These carousels ran 3 times throughout the day, first for the Year 3/4 classes, then for the Year 5/6 classes and finally for the Year 1/2 classes.

Our 'Sports Crew' were incredible at setting up, explaining and demonstrating their activities, recording and totalling scores and organising and encouraging all the children.

This day was such a HUGE success thanks to our 'Sports Crew' and without a doubt it will be on our calendar as an annual sports event.

Thank you to each and every one of you for your outstanding attitude and commitment to this event:

Harry, Taylor, Faye, Lauren, Carly, Alex, Caitlin, Erin, Hugo, Michael, Joseph, Darius, Theo, Haaniyah, Sam, Josh, Jay.

Points were totalled across the whole day and were announced at a very exciting assembly at the end of the day.

For this event the scores were:

- 1st Place: Tyne - 6101 points
- 2nd Place: Angel - 6007 points
- 3rd Place: Baltic - 5722 points
- 4th Place: Sage - 5552 points

Well done to all year groups for participating with such enthusiasm and for your determination at earning lots of points for you house teams. Super team work and a 'jolly well done' to everyone.

Mrs Priestley
